Hybrid

Many of our team activities have been specifically designed for hybrid teams and events. They are a great way to enhance hybrid working models and efficient communication while promoting awareness of diversity and inclusion. Hybrid activities are go-to-solutions especially for international and global teams.

TOP 3 ACTIVITIES

Go Team

Go Team is a high-tech, tablet-based treasure hunt that turns any area into an amazing race full of interaction and adventure. GPS-triggered challenges are issued in the form of questions and clues, quiz, photo or video challenges. In case of rain, we can easily run the activity as an indoor version as well.

The Big Picture

Teams collaborate and communicate to create an enormous interconnected multi-canvas artwork visualising key messages important for your organisation and reflecting your goals and values. During the process teams brush up on their artistic skills, painting a masterpiece of epic proportions.

Beat the Box

A fun, fast, and formidable mystery activity brought with elegance straight to your conference! Unlike many other escape room style activities, Beat the Box drives participants to collaborate cross-teams, all together, topped up with a grande finale that depicts all the success your team can achieve.

Face-to-face activities

Quickfire

Highly engaging app-based game of mental, physical and creative challenges, focusing on individual differences and risk and reward. Equipped with a tablet, a box of fancy materials and a small amount of game currency, teams quest to complete as many challenges within a timeframe.

Pyramid Puzzle

In this innovative and fun team building activity each team is supplied with cardboard, tools and detailed construction plans and tasked to work together to turn a 'flat pack' kit into a giant pyramid. Alternatively the project outcome can also be a racing car, boat or an airplane!

In the Picture

Your company logo becomes a dynamic and memorable activity. Participants are photographed and their portraits processed into a powerful video animation - spotlighting the greatest asset of your company: the people.

Boom Time

A unique, high-tech musical activity to energise your event and unify teams. Armed with colourful Boomwhacker percussion tubes, participants follow a high-tech visual interface which guides them in collaborating to a fiery symphony of music from well-known artists.

iBuild

The aim of each team is to create an exact replica of a model without looking at it. The necessary information is communicated down a chain, from 'architect', to 'courier' and finally to the 'builder'. Players must overcome fun communication barriers at each stage in the chain.

Virtual activities

Race Around the World

Teams become explorers and travel online to many intriguing places around the world. They solve quizzes and unleash their creativity in photo and video challenges. Quickfire creates fun and informative competition that promotes collaboration and enhances online teamwork.

The Infinite Loop

Teams combine clues from a virtual world with the real world to crack codes and open doors. With a joint mission, communication and online collaboration are boosted in an energizing virtual activity! This activity can also be delivered live and in a hybrid setting.

CSI - La Hacienda

Teams investigate an intriguing murder mystery in a virtual 3D hacienda. Gathering clues, solving enigmas and maximizing their deductive skills under time pressure, they crack the murder case.

Impact Online

Impact Online is an activity that highlights the United Nations 17 Sustainable Development Goals. A custom-made app guides teams through diverse challenges that increase their knowledge and awareness on sustainable development driven by the UN.

Knowing Me Knowing You

A high-energy online activity that helps participants get to know each other and strengthens team bonds. The teams' goal is to find as many similarities as possible among them with quick rounds. This is also a great live and hybrid activity!
